

Corbis Corporate Fact Sheet November 2009

Corbis is a creative resource for advertising, marketing and media professionals, providing a comprehensive selection of stock photography, illustration, footage, typefaces and rights clearance services. Through its branded web sites Corbis, Corbis Motion, Veer and GreenLight, the company helps the creative community make distinctive advertising and publishing for web sites, magazines, newspapers, books, television and films.

Worldwide Presence

Corbis has offices in North America, Europe, Asia and Australia and serves customers in more than 50 countries worldwide. Its branded web sites include Corbis.com, CorbisMotion.com, Veer.com and GreenLightrights.com, all of which are localized for multiple countries and languages. Corbis has about 700 employees worldwide.

Customers

Corbis' brands serve hundreds of thousands of clients in leading advertising agencies, direct marketing and graphic design agencies, corporations, publishers and media companies, and small and medium sized businesses as well as consumers.

Contributors

Corbis has more than one hundred corporate image partners and represents the work of more than 30,000 photographers to provide clients the most diverse and comprehensive collection of contemporary and archival imagery.

Commitment to Access and Preservation

Corbis is widely recognized for its photographic preservation efforts led by its Chairman, Bill Gates. The company is preserving tens of millions of historical photographic objects in two climate controlled facilities: The Film Preservation Facility (FPF) in Pennsylvania, USA, and the Sygma Access and Preservation Facility outside Paris, France. These initiatives ensure that imagery in these iconic collections can be easily accessed while preserving them for future generations.
